Financial Support for Teachers/ Normandy Allies 2020:

- Three awards @ $3500: David & Diane Pennock in honor of 1st Lt John Garvik, David Pennock's uncle who was killed in action and is buried in Normandy
- Four awards @ $2500: George F. Cook Bequest in honor of 29th Division soldiers

Application must include:

- Essay responding to the following points:
  - Briefly describe your current knowledge of the Normandy Landings.
  - Does your classroom curriculum include the Normandy Landings? If so, briefly describe the extent and focus.
  - Describe how your participation will benefit your students and/or your school over the next five school years.
How do you envision expanding and enhancing your basic curriculum offerings on the WWII Normandy Landings and Liberation?
- Letter from your school administrator verifying that you are currently employed. The letter must include your current position and current school assignment(s).

Note:

- If your school provides funding or professional development credits for a teacher on an educational trip/workshop, we will complete any forms required for you to apply for this support and/or credits.
- The financial support is issued as payment to EDU Trips. No funds are given directly to the applicant.
- Preference will be given to teachers who have not previously visited Normandy.
- You will be required to write a letter of acknowledgement to the donor before funds are applied to your Land Package costs.
Due date: March 30, 2020.
Failure to send letter will result in forfeiture of financial support.
- Recipients of the Pennock funds: After your return, you will be expected to write a letter to the Pennocks to convey the benefits of the experience and implications for your future curriculum preparation.
Due date: August 14, 2020.
